This is a workshop for law enforcement executives, commanders, supervisors, and analysts on building an agency's crime and crash analysis capabilities, whether you're just getting started or looking to enhance current analytical capacities.

To Register:

Contact Texas- DDACTS Project Manager, Cmdr. (ret) Daniel Howard at danhoward@iadlest.org

Lodging/Per Diem:

IADLEST is pleased to be able to assist your agency with furthering its efforts to develop a data driven strategy by providing two nights of lodging and per diem for attendees traveling more than 50 miles. Although seating is limited, your agency is welcome to take full advantage of this training opportunity by sending more than one of your members, providing seating is available

Learn...

- What to expect from crime/crash analysts
- How to make effective use of an analyst
- How to best support and manage an analysis capability
- Methods to improve data quality, policy, and training
- How to develop effective CompStat and data driven models
- Successful implementation of philosophies like data driven approaches to crime and traffic safety, evidence-based policing, etc.

Instructors have direct experience in the analyst position, and at supervisory, command and executive levels.

NOTE: This course is Nationally Certified and therefore accepted by TCOLE for 14 credit hours.
